Project Konstantinoupoleos Ave., Athens

In one of the busiest areas of Athens, Green Properties has created a new modern residential complex with a minimal aesthetic, which provides its residents with direct access to the most central parts of the city, offering them a comfortable and quality everyday life.

All spaces have large openings in order to create a harmonious connection between interior and exterior space. In addition, there are parking spaces in the pilotis and also in the basement, where cars can be accessed by a car lift.

Also, the building is equipped with solar panels and photovoltaics on the roof, contributing to the protection of the environment. The facade of the building is characterized by clean lines and symmetry, with earth tones that highlight its architecture.

Neighborhood

Landscapes

Nestled in the heart of Athens, Kolonos offers a mix of residential streets and small squares, providing a more tranquil atmosphere compared to the bustling city center. The nearby Pedion Areos, one of Athens' largest parks, offers a breath of fresh air with its open fields, playgrounds, and tree-lined pathways.

Entertainment

The neighborhood hosts traditional Greek tavernas and cozy cafes where locals gather for leisurely conversations. For a livelier atmosphere, residents can venture to nearby neighborhoods where vibrant nightlife and eclectic dining options abound. The proximity to cultural hubs like Exarchia ensures that Kolonos residents have easy access to art galleries, theaters, and music venues, providing a rich cultural experience.

Public Services and Facilities

Public transportation links, such as buses and metro stations, facilitate easy mobility, connecting Kolonos to the broader Athens area. Green spaces within and around the neighborhood, including parks and recreational areas, contribute to the quality of life by offering spaces for relaxation and community engagement. Supermarkets, local markets, and a variety of retail establishments ensure that daily necessities are conveniently within reach.

Location

Kolonos is a large, historic and vibrant neighborhood of the Municipality of Athens. It is served by metro line 2 and "Stathmos Larisis", but also by the electric railway and Attiki Station. Akadimia Platonos and Skouze Hill are integral parts of the area with lots of greenery, cafes and small shops. Also in the area, in a wonderful stone building, is the "Epi Kolono" theatre.
